For Immediate Release:

Paper Excellence awards first national Métis scholarship to Prince Albert resident

[Prince Albert, SK] – Paper Excellence is proud to award its first national Métis scholarship to Jolynn Amyotte who attends Carlton Comprehensive High School in Prince Albert.

“This scholarship will help me focus on the tough classes I plan to take, rather than worrying about how to pay for them,” said Jolynn Amyotte.

Amyotte is a grade twelve student with broad ambitions related to healthcare. Her long-term goal is to improve overall access to and quality of care, as well as bring new ideas of what health looks like to her community.

“We’re pleased to be able to offer scholarships to Indigenous youth who live in the communities surrounding our mills,” said Graham Kissack, VP EH&S and Corporate Communications. “Paper Excellence understands the importance of being good neighbours and greatly values its relationships with Indigenous communities.”
