MILL OVERVIEW

Originally opened in 1909, Domtar's Rothschild Mill in Wisconsin is home to industry-leading, high-quality commercial printing paper brands Cougar® and Lynx®, as well as office and specialty papers. The mill's fiber line boasts a unique partnership for lignin byproduct manufacturing and biomass energy cogeneration, as well as its own sustainability platform with 100 percent of the steam needed to power the mill generated from renewable resources.

ENVIRONMENTAL CONTRIBUTIONS

- The Rothschild Mill beneficially reuses about 98 percent of its manufacturing waste.

COMMUNITY INVESTMENT

- Each year Rothschild Mill employees teach the paper-making process to more than 1,000 students at local schools.
- Each year, the Rothschild Mill contributes about $35,000 in grassroots giving to the local community.
